

VINNY IS THE PERFECT CHOICE FOR YOUR CONFERENCE HOST

Everyone knows that laughter is good for you, so why would you leave the element of fun out of your meetings? Vinny's hilarious keynote, humorous summarizations and conference comments will serve to reinforce your meeting objectives while at the same time keeping your event focused on the desired outcomes and fun.

WITH VINNY, THERE IS NEVER A DULL MOMENT

Vinny will open up your conference with a hilarious personalized keynote. Then from time to time he'll return with some fun and interactive bits to lighten things up, boosting the energy of your meeting.

"The comic emcee was a great way to kick-off the conference with high energy and keep things moving between sessions."

VINNY WILL TAKE CONTROL

Vinny will introduce and summarize the general sessions speakers, commenting on their content in his fun and unique fashion. This serves to reinforce key points that the content speakers are making.

"Having a moderator to run the sessions and provide comic relief was a great idea."

VINNY GETS TO KNOW YOU

He'll come early and he'll stay late, provided you feed him. He will do a daily debrief and host your evening event, show up at breakouts and jump in whenever you need a "shot in the arm," metaphorically speaking. Vinny even makes housekeeping notes fun.

"The facilitation was great!"

VINNY DELIVERS

Whether you call Vinny a host, emcee, moderator or facilitator, the attendees will be walking around saying they...

"Loved Vinny."

Vinny has created the "Bada Bing" to help groups reduce negativity by having more fun.

IF YOU'RE NOT HAVING FUN, YOU'RE DOING IT WRONG!
